

HOW TO PREPARE FOR REOPENING-PT 3

Suzanne Lawless of The Eden House, Rathfarnham, Dublin brings us through what steps they have taken to change their pub layout and prepare for reopening as a restaurant on June 29th.

1. Customers will be able to book tables online or on the phone, in 2 hour slots, and will be able to choose between high or low tables inside or outside.
 2. Upon arrival, a host will take the customer's name and bring them to their table.
 3. Floor signs throughout the premises will direct customers how to social distance.
 4. Two customers at a time will be allowed into each toilet – foot openers have been installed on doors.
 5. Only customers buying alcohol to take away will be able to approach the bar
 6. All tables are at least 2 metres apart, or are divided by barriers
 7. Sanitizing stations are located in each area of the pub
 8. All menus are disposable placemats
 9. Smoking area: only four people allowed at a time
